

OPPORTUNITY TO INVEST AND PARTICIPATE in an exciting new documentary film

The film recounts the stories of 6 people from different countries and varied backgrounds who have each overcome incredible odds to live healthy, purposeful lives. More than surviving, these people are thriving and key lessons drawn from their life stories will be investigated in light of scientific research on resilience.

Experts in the fields of positive psychology, mental health, holistic wellness and self-identity narrative will explore various psychological approaches, fields of study and data, aiming to inspire people around the world to transform their own lives by implementing the strategies outlined in the film.

The film is being produced by Dr. Andrea Pennington, an experienced documentary film maker, highly acclaimed three-time international TEDx speaker, Invited Professor at the University of Monaco and Mentor for the Global Institute for Extraordinary Women. Dr. Andrea has appeared on the Oprah Winfrey Show, the Dr. Oz Show, iTV This Morning, CNN, the Today Show, LUXE-TV, Thrive Global and HuffingtonPost.

Our client is seeking an initial participating investment of €300,000 to create a broadcast quality film with rich visual imagery and graphics which includes casting the leading experts in the field.

There are 4 investment options ranging from €25,000 to €250,000 offering varying levels of participation and, based on the level of investment, providing a profit share of between 0.5% to 8%.

To receive further information please contact:
Claire Fortmuller, Head of Operations
cfortmuller@evolutioncbs.co.uk
+44 (0) 1183 347783

