

Acquisition Opportunity : 2195 Manufacture of Aluminium Products - Revenue: £4.0m

Our client is a long established and well-respected manufacturing group providing an extensive range of extruded aluminium products and multi-metal components.

The business has a large and long-standing client base, which includes major global contractors, specifiers and consultants.

Its experienced workforce comprises 30 people, excluding directors, the majority of which are production engineers.

A small, highly experienced management team support the two main directors and would be able to manage the day to day operations of the business.

The shareholders believe that the Company is well positioned to take advantage of the growth in its core markets and, now wishing to retire, seek new owners to expedite its growth.
